

WINTER TALK SERIES 2018 – 2019

We are now about to begin our fourth series of Winter Talks, detailed below are the speakers for this season.

Thurs 11th October Simon's Sircus, RN Aerobatic team 1968 Tim Miles

Commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Royal Navy's Sea Vixen aerobatic team, a humorous insight from one of the team into what really went on.

Thurs 8th November Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree –
Recording WW1 graffiti on Salisbury Plain Dan Miles

*Did you know that Figheldean was a tourist attraction during the 14/18 war?
Dan is hoping to arrange a visit to Figheldean Church to show us the scribblings on the walls inside the church and then visit the war graves cemetery at Durrington.*

Thurs 13th December Salisbury Cathedral through the eyes of a Volunteer Guide
Jenny McLaughlin

Jenny is a fully-fledged guide at Salisbury Cathedral and she has agreed to host a visit for us.

Thurs 10th January Army – Cold War Shane Rutter-Jerome

Shane will basically discuss the army's role in the NATO defence. This really is relevant today as we see 4000 troops returning from Germany, what have they been doing there all this time?

Thurs 14th February St Valentine's Day NO TALK THIS MONTH

Thurs 14th March Rorkes Drift Simon Hasted

A Newton Tony Rural Arts Event: Sarajevo Big Bang

Friday 12th October

In a surprising and thrilling performance, 2 storytellers and 1 singer from Sweden reveal the modern history of Europe:

“How does everything fit together? How could that fatal gunshot in 1914 change everybody’s life – even today? Through stories, songs and a crazy cabaret, we will take you on a surprising journey through power struggles and secret machinations. It is a journey through time and space with characters who really only want to live, laugh and love; characters who will make you understand just how you’re connected to the gunshot that started World War 1.”

Doors/Bar open at 7pm, performance at 8pm

Tickets £10 for adults (£8 conc, Child £5, Family £25)
